

K.L.E. Society's
G.I. Bagewadi Arts, Science and Commerce College, Nipani-591237

Accredited at 'A' level by NAAC with CGPA 3.35

(Affiliated to Rani Channamma University, Belagavi, Karnataka, India)

Website: www.klegibnnpn.edu.in Ph.: 08338-220116 E-mail: klegib_npn@yahoo.co.in

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CELEBRATIONS & COMMEMORATIVE EVENTS DURING LAST FIVE YEARS

K.L.E. Society's G.I. Bagewadi College, Nipani has great concern for social responsibilities as well as the values. Institution celebrates the days of national, international, cultural, traditional prominence every year in its regular activities.

List of Days Celebration

2020-21	2019-20	2018-19	2017-18	2016-17	Total
24	20	17	11	07	79

1. International Yoga Day

It is celebrated every year on 21st June to promote health awareness in students and college employees. It allows even outsiders to promote the motto of the college at community level for healthy society.

2. International Plastic Bag Free Day

This day of environmental concern is observed annually throughout the world on 3rd July. To avoid the usage of plastic which is extremely lethal for the ecosystem we live in. This human greed-filled product of multiple usages has proven to be destructive for the environment and its entities hence this day suggests us to stay away from this non-degradable thing.

3. Kargil Vijaya Diwas

Kargil Vijay Diwas is celebrated on 26th July every year in honour of the Kargil War's Heroes. This day is celebrated at college to develop the feeling of love for nation among the students.

4. National Librarian's Day

This day is celebrated commemorate the birth anniversary of S.R.Ranganathan on 12th August by the department of Library Science and Information. This also indicates the importance of library in the life of learners and teachers.

5. Independence Day

It is celebrated on 15th August to commemorate the sacrifices of the heroes of freedom struggle who made the present and future of us and also put a strong foundation for our country of tomorrow in every aspect of development. Their stories still can inspire generations.

6. Sadbhavana Day

This day is celebrated also as Goodwill day on August 12 to commemorate the former PM Shri.Rajiv Gandhi and encourage national integration, peace, affection and communal harmony the people of India.

7. National Sports Day

This day of national significance is observed on 29th August every year. The goal of observing this day is of greater prominence because it would not just promote competitive sports, but it aims at modifying our behavior towards sports in order to keep ourselves mentally, physically and morally fit to lead better and healthier life.

8. Teacher's Day

It is celebrated every year on 5th September to commemorate the greatest teacher of our country Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan who led an inspirational and extraordinary life to inspire generations of students and teachers with his practice of ethical and moral values as a teacher.

9. Hindi Day

It is celebrated every year 14th September to impart the knowledge about the historical, cultural and traditional significance of Hindi language in the present generation. It aims at promoting knowledge through literature and language studies.

10. NSS Day

This is observed on 24th September to inculcate the qualities of unity, integrity, fraternity, nationalism, discipline, leadership and values of life by encouraging students to voluntarily take a step for social development. The volunteering qualities of students will help them to develop stage courage, communication skills and their personality.

11. Gandhi Jayanti

The birth anniversary of the Father of nation is celebrated 2nd October every year. It is also observed as National Peace day, promotes the principles of truth, peace and non-violence among youths to make this earth a ground of human values.

12. Karnataka Rajyotsava

This day is observed in the state of Karnataka on 1st November every year to adore the Unification struggle of Karnataka. It aims at imparting the knowledge about the historical, cultural and traditional significance of Kannada language and literature in the present generation.

13. Foundation Day

This day is celebrated on 11th November every year in the institutions of KLE Society for the remembrance of the Saptarshis who exited from comfort zone and founded today's educational giant of the nation KLE Society. The effort of these Seven Sages has been inspiring and committed to impart quality education for thousands of students for generations.

14. Kanakadas Jayanti

This day is observed on 15th November every year to commemorate the great Kannada poet Kanakadasa who has been still inspiring society through his hymns based on social, cultural and human concerns.

15. Constitution Day

This day is observed on 26th November every year. The motto of this day is to make students aware of the constitution and knowledgeable about it to play a vital role as a citizen of the largest democracy of the world. Learning constitution can make us a better citizen of this great country.

16. National Flag Day

National Forces Flag Day is celebrated at our college to make students aware that National Flag Day is commemorated through the collection of funds by the distribution of flags. Indians express their gratitude to both veteran and current military personnel of the country and pay respect to those who died on duty.

17. NCC Day

This is observed every year on 4th Sunday in the month of November to inculcate unity, integrity, fraternity, patriotism, discipline, leadership qualities and values of life by motivating students to voluntarily play a role for social and nationalistic cause to strengthen the nation.

18. World AIDS Day

World AIDS Day is observed on 1st December every year as an opportunity to unite in the fight against HIV and to bring the awareness about causes and AIDS related illness.

19. Lingaraj Jayanti

This day is celebrated on 10th January every year in the institutions of KLE Society for the remembrance of Shri. Shirasangi Lingaraj, a great philanthropist, who donated all his fortune to provide quality education needy people. The effort of him has been inspiring and committed to impart quality education for thousands of students for generations.

20. Swami Vivekananda Jayanti

This day is observed 12th January every year as National Youth Day to inspire youths to inculcate vision, mission and ideals of the great saint Swami Vivekananda in order build a strong nation. On this day students take oath to lead ideal life on the path walked by the Brave Sage.

21. National Voter's Day

This day is celebrated on 25th January to convey a message on the significance of voting in the largest democracy of this planet. Students are informed to use the constitutional right of voting seriously and educate illiterate people about their role in electing a quality leader to rule in the democracy.

22. Republic Day

This day is celebrated on 26th January every year to commemorate the mile stone achievement of India. India became Republic country and adopted constitution for the smooth rule “for the people, by the people and of the people”. It also conveys the historic significance and strenuous effort done by the people who framed the constitution for India. \

23. Marathi Day

Marathi language day is celebrated annually on 27th February to honor the birth anniversary of famous Marathi poet V.V. Shirwadkar, who was popularly known as Kusumagraj. The goal of this observation is to make students aware of the richness and diversity of history, literature, tradition and culture of Marathi language and people.

24. National Science Day

It's observed on 28th February the birth anniversary of Sir. C.V. Raman, a Nobel Laureate in Physics. This day intends to promote scientific temper and education in students and motivate them to indulge in scientific research to match our country to the trending advancements of science and technology in the world.

25. International Women's Day

This day observed in our college 8th March every year. It aims at women empowerment. This day women are motivated to emphasize the significance of Education, employment, leadership quality and courage in elevating the social, political and economic status of women.

26. Dr. B. R. Ambedkar Jayanti

It's celebrated on 14th April to commemorate the father of Indian Constitution; Dr. B. R. Ambedkar who is a multifaceted personality strived hard to elevate social, political and economic status of lower caste, labour class and women. His ideals and extraordinary life can inspire generations.

Apart from this, our institution celebrates various days as a part of our curriculum.

IQAC Co-ordinator
K.L.E.'s G. I. B. College, Nipani.

PRINCIPAL
K.L.E. Society's
G. I. Bagewadi College, Nipani.